Reflection - In Memory of Me

Who do you say that I am?

We call Jesus by many names, and we all have our own answer to Jesus' question. Who do you say I am?

We call him the child Jesus, for he came among us like any of us, born of his mother, helpless and weak, needing the care we all want at the beginning of life.

We call him Saviour for his forgiveness offers us a way not to let sin control us, and his call to be disciples offers a way to the world to overcome evil.

We call him Brother, for he is like us in everything but sin, sharing our joys and sorrows, wanting, like us, to love those we care for, and longing for a world of equality and justice for all of his poor.

We call him Lord, for he is the word of God and the Son of God, who comes from heaven to guide us home. He is the truth of God teaching the meaning of life so that we will never be lost in our search and hope for God.

We call him Friend, for that is what he calls us. He is the friend who shares himself with us, who is the hand of guidance and consolation all the days of our life.

Who do you say that I am?

Friend, Lord, Brother, Child, Son of God, Word of Life, Way, Truth and Life.

Amen
